

1. On the timeline, select the year your account was created on a given social media platform and enter its name. If there are multiple accounts on the same platform, select each one individually.

2. Below, describe (if you remember) a situation in which you lost access to one of these accounts for some reason, and describe the emotions and feelings associated with it.

